

International fund transfer using blockchain

For a technology services provider

RESULTS

Deployed a blockchain-based international fund transfer solution to reduce international transaction time and make the transactions more robust and secure

Used the open-source blockchain framework Stellar, written in the GO language

Used Ionic 4 and Angular to make it intuitive and hybrid

Cost-effective solution that also abides by international fund transfer law

International fund transfer using blockchain

